

ACE Summer Development Camp
Presented by ACE

The ACE Program is happy to introduce the Summer Development Camp. This development program will provide players with weekly skill development as well as game play with wood bats. Wood bats will be provided for the players use. Also, coaches will pitch during game play so not to interfere with players' weekly league schedule. This unique program will allow plays to grow during the season while they are most focused on the game of baseball. The camp will be conducted by the ACE staff.

Camp Head instructors:

Neal Packanik-ACE Program Director, former Player at Ohio University
Alex Eckelman-ACE Program Director, current Asst. Director of Pro Scouting for the Cleveland Indians, 9 Professional seasons, former All-American at Ohio State University
